TOURNAMENT HISTORY

The Ylvisaker Cup is played annually as a tribute to William T. "Bill" Ylvisaker, a true pioneer who was responsible for developing the Wellington, Florida, area into the high-goal winter polo capital of the world. Ylvisaker contributed extensively to the sport's resurgence in the 70s and 80s. Out of the unwelcoming, wild and forbidding marsh on the edge of the Florida Everglades he created the Palm Beach Polo and Country Club. Palm Beach Polo Club flourished and the town of Wellington sprung up around it, going on to successfully host not only polo but numerous other equestrian sports.

As for Ylvisaker's personal playing record, he began with two National Interscholastic Championships in the 40s, continuing his polo career at Yale University, ultimately reaching a 7-goal handicap at the height of his career. His notable wins include a 1972 U.S. Open Polo Championship[®] victory, a USPA Gold Cup[®] and two Coronation Cup titles (Great Britain versus United States), among many others. Ylvisaker co-founded the Polo Training Foundation (PTF) in 1967 and served as its first Vice President. He also served as Chairman of the USPA from 1970 to 1975. He was inducted into the Museum of Polo and Hall of Fame in 1996.

Established in 2003, the Ylvisaker Cup has been exclusively played at the International Polo Club Palm Beach in Wellington, Florida. Over the past decade the popular tournament has fielded rosters of up to 16 teams. New Bridge-La Dolfina captured back-to-back wins in 2006 and 2007, the only consecutive wins by one team in the history of the tournament. Coca-Cola is another staple of the Ylvisaker Cup with recent victories in 2015 and 2017. This year's tournament will feature four competitive teams including Aspen, Beverly Polo, Palm Beach Equine and Tamera.

Current USPA Chairman Stewart Armstrong returns to the fields of the International Polo Club Palm Beach (IPC). making his 2021 debut with Aspen in the Ylvisaker Cup. Last seen in high-goal play in the 2019 Gauntlet of Polo[®], Armstrong will follow the 18goal season by anchoring the back of Aspen Corp as they compete for the elusive 22-

Originally from San Antonio, Texas, and coming from a polo-playing family, Armstrong reached the status of a 7-goal handicap while competing in tournaments worldwide, while making a significant impact on the sport. Receiving the Hugo Dalmar Trophy in 2019, awarded to the player who best exemplifies the sportsmanship characteristics inherent to the sport of polo, Armstrong took the position of USPA Chairman in 2020, continuing his work off the field to grow the sport in the United States. On the field, Armstrong's notable victories have come in the C.V. Whitney Cup (formerly the U.S. Handicap) in 1984 and 1986, along with the Silver Cup in 1986. Competing at IPC during the winter and in Aspen, Colorado, during the summer, Armstrong continues to be a presence in the high goal scene, holding a 3-goal handicap and proving to be a consistent back for Aspen.

Armstrong's Aspen team performed well, playing an exciting style of play that nearly won them the USPA Gold Cup[®], falling 12-11 in overtime to Pilot, in one of the more memorable games in recent years at IPC. Instrumental to their success, Armstrong excelled at the back of the game, consistently turning around play and initiating the Aspen attack. Adding 12 goals and 9 assists in his 11 games that season, Armstrong proved he could come forward and convert around goal to provide additional offense for the team. Horsepower is a strong component of Armstrong's game, breeding polo ponies at an early age while utilizing that strength in capturing notable Best Playing Pony awards in years past including with Linador in the 2019 North American Cup®

Armstrong's role continues to evolve on the field, joined this season at IPC by Gonzalo de la Fuente, Tomas Pieres and Lucas James in the Ylvisaker Cup. Having chemistry with James from the 2019 Gauntlet of Polo[®], Armstrong frees up his teammates while protecting against the counterattack. Beyond the 18-goal, Armstrong can be seen guarterbacking one of the most intriguing teams in the 22-goal, playing alongside a former Dutta Corp team that dominated the 18-goal at IPC in 2019, capturing both the Joe Barry Memorial and Ylvisaker Cup titles.

POLO SCHOOL at International Polo Club

The International Polo School is in full swing this season, entering its fourth year. The school is a full-service operation; offering lessons, stabling, four, six, and 8 goal leagues, coaching leagues, and horse leasing. The IPS also offers practice memberships which allow sponsors and their professionals to practice twice a week from January through April.

The School now offers 150+ stalls for rent which includes turnout, access to exercise tracks, and a full-length stick and ball field. Gates Gridley and Ignacio "Nacho" Cabrera have built the program from 10 horses and 100 lessons in 2017 to 28 horses and over 600 lessons in 2020. The School operates from Tuesday through Sunday from October through May and has a string of horses that can accomodate any level of riding, whether you are a beginner looking to try a new sport, or an experienced player looking to participate in practices, leagues, or stick and ball.

For more information contact Gates Gridley at 203-232-6935 or jgridley@equestriansport.com.
