TOURNAMENT HISTORY

The Ylvisaker Cup is played annually as a tribute to William T. "Bill" Ylvisaker, a true pioneer who was responsible for developing the Wellington, Florida, area into the high-goal winter polo capital of the world. Ylvisaker contributed extensively to the sport's resurgence in the 70s and 80s. Out of the unwelcoming, wild and forbidding marsh on the edge of the Florida Everglades he created the Palm Beach Polo and Country Club. Palm Beach Polo Club flourished and the town of Wellington sprung up around it, going on to successfully host not only polo but numerous other equestrian sports.

As for Ylvisaker's personal playing record, he began with two National Interscholastic Championships in the 40s, continuing his polo career at Yale University, ultimately reaching a 7-goal handicap at the height of his career. His notable wins include a 1972 U.S. Open Polo Championship[®] victory, a USPA Gold Cup[®] and two Coronation Cup titles (Great Britain versus United States), among many others. Ylvisaker co-founded the Polo Training Foundation (PTF) in 1967 and served as its first Vice President. He also served as Chairman of the USPA from 1970 to 1975. He was inducted into the Museum of Polo and Hall of Fame in 1996.

Established in 2003, the Ylvisaker Cup has been exclusively played at the International Polo Club Palm Beach in Wellington, Florida. Over the past decade the popular tournament has fielded rosters of up to 16 teams. New Bridge-La Dolfina captured back-to-back wins in 2006 and 2007, the only consecutive wins by one team in the history of the tournament. Coca-Cola is another staple of the Ylvisaker Cup with recent victories in 2015 and 2017. This year's tournament will feature four competitive teams including Aspen, Beverly Polo, Palm Beach Equine and Tamera.

Making his 2021 debut in the Ylvisaker Cup, 9-goaler Diego Cavanagh joins Tamera as the highest-rated player in the tournament, putting that status on display in his second game, a victory against Beverly Polo where he led all players with six goals. Cavanagh enters the season at the International Polo Club Palm Beach (IPC) after a memorable 2020 year in Argentina, where he excelled on La Dolfina Polo Ranch, finishing seventh in the Triple Crown in scoring with 37 goals. Playing a prototypical #3 position, Cavanagh plays end-to-end polo, able to score at a prolific rate, while also active on the defensive end.

UK, where he filled in for the injured David Stirling this past year to capture the King Power Gold Cup, places Cavanagh among the elite players in the sport. Averaging 4.6 goals per game during the UK season, Cavanagh continues to be an offensive force across each season. With fond memories of the 2017 run through the then 26-goal tournaments, Cavanagh is a player to watch throughout the remainder of Playing at the highest level of polo internationally in the Ylvisaker Cup, with the potential to continue his the USA, UK, and Argentina, Cavanagh's most notable exceptional scoring from Tuesday's victory.

achievement comes on the fields at IPC where he captured the "American Triple Crown - C.V. Whitney Cup, USPA Gold Cup[®], U.S. Open Polo Championship[®]," now known as the Gauntlet of Polo[™] in 2017 with Valiente alongside Adolfo Cambiaso. His progression over the past few years has culminated in the announcement that he will be joining the iconic La Dolfina team in Argentina in 2021, a team that has captured the Abierto Argentino de Polo eight consecutive times.

His recent success in Argentina, along with the > Scoring the first three goals of the game in just over four minutes of play, Cavanagh single-handedly took over the match, ultimately finishing with six goals and three assists in his second game of the year and building chemistry with new teammates Alejandro Poma, Lucas Escobar, and Luis Escobar.

POLO SCHOOL at International Polo Club

The International Polo School is in full swing this season, entering its fourth year. The school is a full-service operation; offering lessons, stabling, four, six, and 8 goal leagues, coaching leagues, and horse leasing. The IPS also offers practice memberships which allow sponsors and their professionals to practice twice a week from January through April.

The School now offers 150+ stalls for rent which includes turnout, access to exercise tracks, and a full-length stick and ball field. Gates Gridley and Ignacio "Nacho" Cabrera have built the program from 10 horses and 100 lessons in 2017 to 28 horses and over 600 lessons in 2020. The School operates from Tuesday through Sunday from October through May and has a string of horses that can accomodate any level of riding, whether you are a beginner looking to try a new sport, or an experienced player looking to participate in practices, leagues, or stick and ball.
